PRIVACY POLICY

SpectroClick, Inc. and spectroclick.com (together, "SpectroClick") values your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information. By personal information, we mean information that can be used to identify or contact an individual. We collect personally identifiable information as required for business transactions and do not abuse or sell this information. We would share personal information only if there is a situation where our cooperation is required by law or requested by a law enforcement agency.

We reserve the right to publish feedback, questions, comments, or other communications that you transmit to this website. We will not include identifying information on any published questions or comments unless we receive your permission to do so.

Various technologies may be used to collect information about types and versions of internet browsers used when accessing our website and navigating through pages. This information is aggregated to help with improving our website and communications but does not include personal information.

SpectroClick provides links to other websites and content on the internet for informational purposes only. SpectroClick is not responsible for the content or privacy policy of any site links we provide and linking does not imply an endorsement.

To comply with COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act), SpectroClick does not knowingly collect personal information from anyone under 13 years of age. Should we be notified that personal information was provided for someone under 13 years of age, we will remove that information in compliance with COPPA.

Our PRIVACY POLICY may change at any time. If any changes are made, we will post the new PRIVACY POLICY on our web site.
